PNB appoints new members to board of directors

KUALA LUMPUR: Permodalan Nasional Bhd (PNB) yesterday appointed Datuk Ahmad Badri Mohd Zahir, Tan Sri Zainun Ali, Datuk Nik Ramlah Nik Mahmood and Datuk Johan Ariffin as new members of its board of directors, effective January 1.

They succeed board members Tan Sri Ali Hamsa, Tan Sri Wan Abdul Aziz Wan Abdullah and Tan Sri Zarinah Anwar, who are retiring next Monday.

Ahmad Badri is currently the secretary-general of Treasury and has served the Finance Ministry for more than 25 years.

Zainun is a former Federal Court judge, and prior to that held various positions in the legal and judicial service.

Nik Ramlah is the former deputy chief executive of the Securities Commission and currently serves as a member of the board of directors of Amanah Sa-ham Nasional Bhd (ASNB).

Johan, who has vast experience in property development, banking and insurance, is presently chairman of Mitraland Group and Pelaburan Hartanah Nasional Bhd. He is also a board member of a number of public-listed companies, including Sime Darby Property Bhd.

“I am pleased to welcome the distinguished line-up of new members, who possess between them extensive and complementary experience in their respective fields of investment, law, economics, as well as real estate,” said PNB group chairman Tan Sri Dr Zeti Akhtar Aziz.

“PNB looks forward to gaining from their contribution as we continue to be relentlessly focused on strengthening our resilience and delivering on our mandate to enhance the economic wealth of Malaysians.”
